Transportation Options

Coming By Train

Destination: Union Station (New Haven, CT)

MTA Metro-North Railroad Service: To and from New York City. Metro-North offers service on the New Haven Line, connecting to the Harlem and Hudson MTA lines. Hourly trains to and from New York City, often for under $20.

Amtrak Service

Acela Express: Serves Boston, MA - New York, NY - Philadelphia, PA - Washington, DC at speeds of up to 150 mph. Length of trip: 7 hours. Check Acela availability for New Haven line.

Regional Service: Serves Boston, MA - Springfield, MA/Providence, RI - New York - Washington, DC - Newport News. Check schedules for station information.

Vermont Service: Serves St. Albans, VT - Burlington, VT - Springfield, MA - New York, NY - Washington, DC. Check schedules for station information.

Directions to Yale from the New Haven Train Station (Union Station) to Yale Campus:

We recommend taking a taxi (max. $10) to Linsly-Chittenden Hall (LC), which is located on 63 High Street. However, depending on the number of students arriving by train, we may send students to pick students up from the train station. After we hear back from everyone regarding their preferred choice of transportation, we will let you know whether there will be Yale student-escorts at the train station.

Coming By Bus

The Greyhound Buslines terminal (203-772-2470) and the Peter Pan Buslines terminal (800-343-9999) are located at the New Haven train station.

<http://www.cityofnewhaven.com/ParkingAuthority/images/map.gif>

FOR SCHOOL BUSES AND CHAPERONE CARS: Please park in Yale Lot 51. The lot's entrance is on Temple Street between Wall and Elm Streets. There will be conference volunteers at the parking lot to direct you to the conference building.

FOR OTHER CARS: Please park in Chapel-York Garage, located at 150 York Street between Crown and Chapel Streets. The parking fee for one day is approximately $10.

On-street metered parking is also available on High Street and Elm Street.

Important Things to Keep in Mind...

- 1) It will probably be fairly chilly in New Haven on November 5^h, with temperature in the 40s. Because you will be doing a bit of walking around campus, please wear warm and comfortable clothing.
- 2) Conference attire is not required, dress comfortably. You will also receive a free t-shirt, and we will ask you to wear that shirt throughout the entire conference.
- 3) Breakfast, lunch, and dinner will be provided. Your parents, teachers, and chaperones will need to pay $10 for the three meals.
- 4) Please plan on arriving in Linsly-Chittenden Hall (LC) – 63 High Street between 9am and 9:30am. Registration starts at 9am. If you are driving to New Haven, PLEASE PARK YOUR CAR IN ONE OF THE PARKING LOTS MENTIONED ABOVE BEFORE COMING TO LINSELY-CHITTENDEN HALL. High Street is a one-way & one-lane street, and we do not want the street to be crowded with cars dropping off students.
- 5) Please complete and fill out the Liability Release Form and turn in the form at the registration. IF YOU DO NOT HAVE IT FILLED OUT BEFORE COMING TO THE CONFERENCE, YOU WILL NOT BE ALLOWED TO PARTICIPATE.
- 6) If you have any questions, please feel free to get in touch with Ysabel Ilagan (ysabel.ilagan@yale.edu), PAEC coordinator, or Christopher Marnell (christopher.marnell@yale.edu), high school liaison. You can also reach Ysabel at 407.403.0383 and Chris at
